"call it conspiracy"

PICASSOfilm

PRESENTS

a documentary series that delves into today's most discussed and debated conspiracies

SERIES OVERVIEW

We explore the world's most discussed and debated conspiracy theories from an objective point of view! Since the end of the Cold War and the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991, the public has become increasingly suspicious of the real intentions of various governments.

It has come to believe governments hide the absolute truth and conspire against their people. Since the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center on 11 September 2001, we have witnessed the continued rise of conspiracy theories.

Because they offer alternative explanations to actual events, conspiracy theories are often full of contradictions. The advent of the Internet has proved to be fertile ground for developing conspiracy theories. Although there are hundreds of websites on conspiracy theories, not all of them offer credible information.

Consequently, the general public often dismisses conspiracy theories as unfounded or bizarre. However, it is up to us to do our due diligence and investigate these claims. THE CALL IT CONSPIRACY series offers an objective approach to this rather bleak and dark subject. It is up to the viewer to see these stories as words of astonishment or warning.

EPISODE 1 & 2: "TWIN TOWERS: SEPTEMBER 11, 2001"

Synopsis:

In this compelling episode, we delve into one of the most controversial events in modern history: the terrorist attacks on the Twin Towers in New York City on September 11, 2001.

The episode begins by setting the stage, capturing the bustling atmosphere of Lower Manhattan on that fateful morning. As the sun rises, unsuspecting people start their day, unaware of the tragedy that is about to unfold.

We follow the personal stories of several key characters, including survivors, first responders, and witnesses at Ground Zero. Through their first-hand accounts, we get a visceral sense of the chaos, fear, and confusion that invaded the area when the towers were hit by hijacked planes.

However, this episode takes an intriguing turn when it explores the various conspiracy theories that emerged after the attacks. We meet people who question the official narrative and present alternative explanations for the events of that day.

Experts and researchers speak out by analyzing the evidence and examining the arguments of conspiracy theorists. They delve into topics such as controlled demolitions, alleged government involvement, and discrepancies in official investigations.

Conspiracy theories about the September 11, 2001 twin towers are numerous and vary in popularity and credibility. Here are the conspiracy theories we will examine during our two episodes:

1. Insider Conspiracy Theory: This theory claims that the U.S. government, or parts of it, orchestrated the 9/11 attacks. Proponents of this theory claim that the attacks were a pretext for starting wars in the Middle East and restricting civil liberties in the United States.

2. Controlled Demolition Theory: According to this theory, the Twin Towers and Building 7 of the World Trade Center would have been intentionally demolished with explosives instead of collapsing due to the impact of planes and fire. Supporters say the fall of the towers had characteristics similar to controlled demolition.

3. Jewish or Israeli involvement: This anti-Semitic theory suggests that Jews or the State of Israel were involved in the 9/11 attacks for political or financial reasons. It is important to note that this theory is widely considered unfounded and discriminatory.

While presenting these alternative viewpoints, the episode maintains a balanced approach, addressing counterarguments and providing factual information from official reports and investigations.

Ultimately, the episode leaves viewers with a thought-provoking experience, highlighting the complexity of the event and the ongoing debates surrounding it. It encourages critical thinking, empathy, and a deeper understanding of the lasting ramifications of the 9/11 attacks.

EPISODE 3: “COVID-19/LEAK FROM A LAB/VACCINATION CONSPIRACY”

Synopsis:

In this captivating episode, we delve into the realm of conspiracy surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic, exploring the controversial theories surrounding the virus's origin, alleged lab leaks, and the vaccination rollout.

The episode begins by providing an overview of the COVID-19 outbreak, its rapid global spread, and its devastating impact on communities worldwide. We hear personal stories of individuals affected by the virus, capturing the human toll and the urgency to understand its origins.

The documentary delves into the virus's origins, examining the contentious theory of a lab leak. We explore the claims suggesting that SARS-CoV-2, the virus responsible for COVID-19, could have escaped from a laboratory intentionally or accidentally. Experts, scientists, and whistleblowers are interviewed, sharing their perspectives and presenting evidence for and against this theory.

As the narrative unfolds, the episode takes a thought-provoking turn, addressing the wide-ranging conspiracy theories surrounding COVID-19 vaccinations. It explores claims that the vaccines were developed with ulterior motives, such as population control, government surveillance, or introducing harmful substances into the population. These theories have circulated widely, leading to vaccine hesitancy and misinformation.

Medical professionals, researchers, and public health experts offer counterarguments, presenting scientific evidence and debunking misinformation related to COVID-19 vaccines. The episode highlights the rigorous testing, regulatory processes, and global collaborations involved in developing and distributing vaccines, emphasizing their safety and effectiveness.

Here are some of the most prominent conspiracy theories related to COVID-19, lab leaks, and vaccination that we'll examine in our episode:

1. Lab Leak Theory: This theory suggests that SARS-CoV-2, the virus responsible for COVID-19, leaked from a laboratory, specifically the Wuhan Institute of Virology in China. Proponents of this theory claim that the virus was engineered or accidentally released, challenging the widely accepted belief that it originated naturally from animal sources.
2. Bioweapon Conspiracy: According to this theory, COVID-19 was intentionally created as a bioweapon by a government or powerful organization. Supporters of this theory believe that the virus was deliberately released to destabilize economies, control populations, or gain political advantage.
3. Vaccination Microchips: This conspiracy theory suggests that COVID-19 vaccines contain microchips or tracking devices. Advocates of this theory claim that the vaccines are part of a larger surveillance scheme to monitor and control individuals.

EPISODE 3: (continue) “COVID-19/LEAK FROM A LAB/VACCINATION CONSPIRACY”

4. Population Control: Some conspiracy theorists believe that the COVID-19 pandemic and associated measures, such as lockdowns and vaccinations, are part of a broader agenda for population control. This theory suggests that powerful entities aim to reduce the global population through various means, including spreading the virus and implementing vaccination programs.

5. Vaccine Side Effects and Hidden Agendas: This theory alleges that COVID-19 vaccines have undisclosed side effects or hidden agendas. Supporters claim the vaccines are harmful, causing severe illness, infertility, or long-term health complications. Additionally, some believe that vaccines introduce substances or technologies into the population for undisclosed purposes.

Throughout the documentary, the human impact of the pandemic is not forgotten. Stories of frontline healthcare workers, families who lost loved ones to COVID-19, and communities battling the virus highlight the importance of accurate information and responsible reporting.

The episode concludes by encouraging viewers to evaluate information critically, rely on trusted sources, and understand the ongoing scientific research surrounding COVID-19. We hear from individuals who claim that The Great Reset is not merely a noble initiative but rather a sinister plot orchestrated by a global elite to exert control over economies, governments, and individual freedoms.
